Tell SCHOOL OF MUSIC

MILLERSVILLE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

For the first time in its 163-year history, Millersville University has a named School in recognition of a donor. Approved earlier this year, The Tell School of Music is named in honor of Patrick J. Tell, an entrepreneur and philanthropist from Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The School's naming acknowledges Tell's lifetime giving and support of Millersville University and its students.

Tell's increased awareness of the University's music program came as the result of attending Glorious Sounds of the Season. "The student performances at Glorious Sounds were amazing," explained Tell. "That wonderful experience started me on a path to attend many other performances at the University and I thought, these students and their success is something that I should support."
